

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Olive Shumway Berg was born on November 10, 1893, to Charles A. and Eulalie Burnette Shumway near Northville, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Olive quickly learned the value and joy of learning and garnered degrees from Aberdeen Public School, Northern State College, the University of Minnesota and the University of Washington; and,

WHEREAS, After acquiring an extensive education, Olive dedicated her life to educating others. She published a mathematics book, I Have Your Number, John, and wrote and published innumerable brochures and service bulletins for the teachers of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to her writing talents, Olive bolstered the quality of education in South Dakota by teaching. She then became a Junior High and Senior High School Principal, Superintendent of Schools, and Supervisor of Elementary Education for the South Dakota Department of Public Instruction; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to the 43 years that Olive dedicated to the education of our young people, she also distinguished herself in community affairs. A few of Olive's accomplishments include Spink County U.S.O. Director during World War II, Charter Member of the State A.A.U.W., National President of the National Safety Council, and State Director of Civil Defense; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of the ninetieth birthday of a South Dakotan who has dedicated her life to her state and its people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 10, 1983, as

OLIVE S. BERG DAY

In South Dakota, and I urge all South Dakotans to reflect on the excellence and energy which Olive S. Berg brought to everything she did and on the many ways we have benefitted from her service to us. Happy Birthday, Olive!

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
